AXED: X53 Sunday bus service

A MAJOR bus route through the Bridport area is to be axed leaving thousands potentially stranded one day a week.

The X53 Sunday service – which runs from Weymouth to Lyme Regis via Abbotsbury, Burton Bradstock, West Bay and Bridport – is to be cut by the end of December as Dorset County Council continues to seek ways to find £57m of cuts demanded by Westminster over three years.

The move will see the end of any kind of public transport along the coast road and between West Bay and Bridport on Sundays.

But angry residents are concerned the cost-cutting is again targeting the most vulnerable as well as knocking tourism and hitting people who need the bus to get to work on a Sunday.

Burton Bradstock Parish Councillor Darren Batten voiced his concerns after

by Chris Denne

hearing from residents at the most recent West Area Transport Action Group (WATAG) meeting.

He said: "A lot of people in the community in Burton Bradstock rely on that bus. People are busy in their lives and these days that includes Sundays."

The 44-year-old continued: "It is a trading day now and has been for a long while. I know of people in Burton Bradstock who use the bus to get to work – I imagine a lot of youngsters rely on it for Sunday work."

"Even in winter we have rural businesses – pubs, cafes, everything at Abbotsbury and things going on in Weymouth and Bridport. Just because it is winter in Dorset it doesn't mean we hibernate."

The master brewer for Palmers Brewery added: "Dorset County Council are always talking about finding ways to promote tourism – well here is a cut which will surely hit tourism hard.

"They need to run buses more efficiently, not cut routes. My fear is that this is the thin end of the wedge and that

DEATH NOTICE

HAMBURGER Dorrie – passed away peacefully on Friday 23rd November 2012, aged 103 years. Dorrie will be sadly missed by all her family and friends. A Thanksgiving Service will take place on Tuesday 4th December at St. Peter & St. Paul Church, Uplyme at 2.00pm. Flowers or donations to R.N.L.I. – Lyme Regis Branch may be sent c/o A. J. Wakely & Sons Ltd, 7A, Silver Street, Lyme Regis, Dorset DT7 3HR Tel: 01297 443835

ELIZABETH Hornby was born in Weymouth and lived in Portland as a child. Growing up she loved visiting relatives in Africa, which inspired her to travel as an adult, revisiting Africa and living in South India for a year.

She has lived in Bridport for the past five years where she runs a tutoring business "Busy Miss Lizzie", teaching music and mental maths to more than 20 children.

An accomplished pianist, Lizzie writes piano music, releasing an album of her own compositions earlier this year. She is also in charge of events at the Unitarian Chapel in the Garden and is passionate about healing.

● WHICH do you like best - playing music, teaching or organising events?

I like the feeling of inspiration flowing through me and sharing it with people. This happens when I teach or play music or organise an event, I love it all!

● WHAT inspires your music?

Our local landscape, especially the woods, fields and cliffs. We live in outstanding beauty and it never fails to take my breath away when I stop to appreciate it. I am also inspired and surprised daily by the students I teach and their capacity for creativity and sheer joy when they really get into the music they are making.

● YOU recently released a CD - any plans to do another?

Yes, in the Summer I release "Lady of Lewesdon Hill" which is an album of my solo piano music. I enjoyed every bit of recording it and I definitely have plans for more. I have been composing steadily since!

● WHAT is it like to play piano to a live audience?

In August, I played at my album launch party at the Electric Palace and it is an experience I will never forget. For the first few seconds, I thought I would be overwhelmed by nerves. Luckily, I decided to enjoy it and try to share some of the passion I have for the piano and thankfully my hands stopped shaking enough to play.

● WHAT'S so special about the Chapel in the Garden?

It is just an amazing, joyful and yet calming place, very inclusive and open. It has events and activities that help people reach for positivity in their lives. It doesn't matter what faith or background you have, all are welcome. There are events to attend seven days a week, I send out a weekly email with it all on. Anyone can sign up for this, just pop in to the chapel or email me via the website.

● WHAT'S the most memorable event you have been involved with there?

A multi-faith carol service which was attended by 120 people. We celebrated Christmas, Hannukah and the Winter Solstice. The space was beautifully decorated with ribbon and real greenery, we had four harps and lots of other musicians. A lot of children were present and we sang, danced and learnt about how different people in our community celebrate this time of year. For example Jane Silver Corren, our town crier, told us about the Jewish festival Hannukah. We are celebrating again this year on December 20th at 5pm - it is family and pet friendly and we already have a lot of musicians and children involved.

● THE chapel is inter-denominational. What does this mean in practice?

Well, it is Unitarian which is inclusive and respecting of all people's paths and faiths. It embraces people wherever they are spiritually. This can mean people of all religions or none. In my experience what this means in practice is that you will never be told what to believe.

● WHAT do you hope to impart to children when you teach them?

I hope to impart a sense of fun with their own learning and confidence in themselves. With music, I like to be able to help children start composing and finding the joy in sharing music together.

● IS music beneficial to the development of a child?

Absolutely! It can be such a source for joy, confidence building and generally a whole brain learning experience. This means it uses both the right and the left brain which in turn will help in other areas of their learning such as reading and writing.

● You are involved with soul midwifery. What is that?

Felicity Warner started the Soul Midwife Foundation which trains people to work holistically with the dying. People come to Dorset from all over the world to learn this approach with Felicity and her team. I teach on her courses. It is a humbling profession and anyone who has heard Felicity speak or read her book is in awe of the work Soul Midwives do.

● WHO would play you in the movie of your life?

Someone British who can act and who is genuine? Perhaps Kate Winslet or Helena Bonham Carter. Still can't stop laughing about this question.

● WHAT do you want for Christmas?

On a materialistic note, I would love a vintage satchel to carry my music books from lesson to lesson. One of the parents I work for commented the other day, "I know what you need for Christmas!" when she saw what I currently use.

Lizzie's CD "The Lady of Lewesdon Hill" is on sale at Bridport Music or online at cdbaby.com

Work on B3157 may miss target

A NOTORIOUS stretch of road in West Dorset is to see new markings in a bid to improve safety.

Dorset County Council is carrying out the work on the B3157 coast road – which runs from Bridport to Weymouth – as part of the Road Safety Partnership Project.

But it is feared the improvements “miss the target” when it comes to improving the route’s notorious safety record.

The work is set to alter centre lining, amend edge lining at lay-bys, remove edge and centre lines in villages and remove and refresh ‘slow’ markings.

No work is planned to alter the centre-line catseyes.

Highways staff at DCC will start at the bend at Bagwell Farm, near Chickerell, and move west towards Bridport. Stop and go boards will be used where necessary.

Mike Winter, head of highways management at DCC acknowledged the

by Chris Denne
chris@pemedia.co.uk

council’s management of the road had angered some motorists.

He said: “We know that this project has been unpopular with a number of drivers, but the concept of minimising road markings in order to make drivers think about what they are doing appears to be working.”

He added: “The scenic and rural nature of the road has been at the forefront of this project.

“The work we are undertaking now is in keeping with the partnership’s aims to improve safety using methods sympathetic with the rural setting, so drivers shouldn’t expect to suddenly see a reappearance of signage and lots of road markings.”

The scenic route from Bridport to Weymouth via Abbotsbury has been subject to safety campaigns following a number of fatal crashes.

Former campaigner Tony Edwards runs a bed and breakfast adjacent to the coast road.

He said: “I’m all for anything that can improve safety along this road. But I think the issue with white lines and cats eyes is missing the target – many accidents occur in broad daylight and good weather with clear visibility.

He continued: “The issue is the speed at which people drive along here.

“The road is one long uninterrupted ribbon with no roundabouts, no pedestrian crossings, no traffic lights - nothing to make people slow down.

“If people drove at the 50mph speed limit [the maximum set along the route] then there would be far fewer accidents.

He added: “I am not in favour of urbanising the road, but I would like to see speed indicator devices at points along the road. It makes people aware of how fast they are going so they don’t suddenly find themselves approaching a bend at 70mph and find themselves on their roof in a field.”

In addition to the roadworks, the brown ‘tourist’ signs at the each end of the coast road are also set to be amended to include the words “scenic route to Bridport [or Weymouth] via Abbotsbury.”

Crime update

A MAN has been released on unconditional bail following his arrest for drink driving on November 21st in Pymore, Bridport. He was also found to be in possession of a class A drug.

A man has been released on bail after he was arrested for being drunk and disorderly on West Street, Bridport on November 22nd.

A shed and a garage at two properties in the area of Lee Lane and King Charles Way in Bridport were burgled between Monday, November 19th and Tuesday, November 20th. Among the items stolen were a Champion petrol lawn mower, a red Honda petrol lawn mower, a Dewalt cordless combi drill, a Stihl hedge trimmer and a Draper brush cutter.

Police are advising members of the public to be wary should they be offered cheap second hand tools where the origin is unclear.

On the same evening bagged coal was stolen from the garage area of a property at Victoria Grove, Bridport.

Jurassic bus Sunday service axed

there are more cuts to come.”

Councillor Ros Kayes – who is Bridport Town Council’s representative on WATAG – described the decision as thoughtless, alarming and disastrous.

She said: “This decision... is paltry cost cutting of the worst kind. They have no thought for how it will impact on elderly or low income residents who may rely on buses as their only form of transport.

“It is even more alarming though, that [DCC] are proposing to make further savings from an upcoming review of all subsidised services. This could affect the routes to Dorchester and Axminster as well, and not just Sunday services. The people of Bridport need to be really, really concerned about it.”

She added: “Any cuts to existing services would be disastrous to the people of Bridport.”

The X53 bus – run by First Group – previously operated all the way from Exeter to Poole on Sundays, as it does on weekdays, but had its route curtailed when Devon County Council withdrew funding support.

A spokesman for First bus group said: “Following the council’s decision to remove funding for Sunday journeys on Service X53 during the winter period, these journeys will cease to operate from the end of the year.”

He continued: “While regrettable, without the support from the local authority to run these journeys it is not financially possible for us to operate them during the winter.”

When asked how many passengers would be affected, he said: “Unfortunately I am unable to provide passenger figures as this data is commercially sensitive.”

A DCC spokesman blamed the cuts on “severe pressures” on resources.

He said: “Although not part of our original contract with First, Dorset County Council agreed to fund a winter Sunday service on the Lyme Regis – Bridport – Weymouth section of the X53 route for 2011/12 only.

“The service ran from the end of October 2011 to late April 2012 and cost £17,923. The average number of passengers per journey was around 23.

“Given the severe pressures on local Government resources, there is no new funding available to support additional bus services.

“The cabinet could therefore not agree to fund the X53 winter Sunday service beyond the end of December 2012.

“Next year we will be reviewing all of our subsidised bus routes to ensure we are making the best use of our limited resources, and the X53 winter Sunday service will be considered as part of that review.

“It is anticipated that an X53 Sunday service will resume before Easter.”

Many bus routes have been affected by council cuts either directly or through a reduction in the amount councils pay bus companies whenever a passenger uses a bus pass – a cost cutting measure that led to this week’s demise of the 202 route from Crewkerne to Dorchester.

Car dealer saves Santa

SANTA'S visit to Bridport has been rescued by the quick actions of a local businessman.

St Nick's much-loved annual tour through the town's streets in the run-up to Christmas was under threat after organisers found themselves short of a vehicle to pull his sleigh.

But Brit Valley Rotary Club did not have to worry. Motorwell of Bridport – the specialist Mitsubishi dealers on East Road – stepped in to save the day.

They have promised Father Christmas a Mitsubishi L-200 4x4 pickup – more than enough to haul Santa's sleigh around town and give local children a glimpse of the great man before his busy night.

Motorwell's manager David Thompson was only too happy to help.

He said: "I have supported this cause in the past and I'm happy to do it again.

"We like to play our part in the community and so we're lending one of our pick-ups to get the job done."

Brit Valley Rotary Club's John Dobinson was grateful to Motorwell.

He said: "It saved out bacon. You can't tow Santa's sleigh with an ordinary car so this is just what we needed."

Just so you don't miss him on his tour, here is Father Christmas'

Bridport schedule:

- Monday, December 3rd - Howard Road, Jessop's Avenue, Happy Island;
- Tuesday, December 4th - Bradpole;
- Thursday, December 6th - Charmouth and West Mead;
- Monday, December 10th - Burton Bradstock;

- Tuesday, December 18th - Meadowlands, West Bay & Salway Ash;
- Thursday, December 22nd - Skilling and Watton Park.

Santa and his sleigh will also be in Bridport town on Saturday mornings during December.

The Rotary Club of Bridport would like to take this opportunity of thanking the following businesses for their sponsorship of this year's float: The Haddon House Hotel, The Letting Factory, Simon Christopher Accountants, Boilerman, Carpet World and Chesterton Humberts.

Colfox school set to become an academy

THE Sir John Colfox School looks certain to sever ties with Dorset County Council and adopt Academy status.

The move would see the school become responsible for its own budget and able to set its own curriculum in line with the schools initiative started under Tony Blair's Labour government and taken forward by the Coalition.

The secondary school has completed two stages of consultation, the first with parents and governors, the second with teachers and staff, with the consensus at both meetings described by head teacher Kay Taylor as "reluctant acceptance" of the proposal.

She said: "During both consultations, with parents and teaching staff, there was some reluctance towards becoming an Academy. But it was generally agreed at both consultations that becoming an Academy was best for the school and best for the students.

"We would rather not do so, but we reluctantly accept that we best serve the school and the pupils by becoming an Academy."

The move is seen as a reaction to changes in national education policy which would limit pupil choice if the school did not act.

Mrs Taylor said: "If we were not able to set our own curriculum then we would be required to implement changes that would limit the subjects students would be able to study in future.

"There are a whole raft of subjects that pupils are going to be required to study under new guidelines. For example they would be required to do both history and geography as well as courses in art appreciation and design which would not even count towards their GCSE's.

"This would leave no time left to study anything of their own choice and we as a school do not want to see that happen.

"By becoming an Academy we will be able to continue giving our students the choices they enjoy at present."

The school will now meet with UNICEF and teachers unions before consulting the pupils themselves and coming to a final decision.

Mrs Taylor said: "Visibly there will be no difference if we were to become an Academy.

"We will continue to run the school in the same way and if anything we will have a little bit more money to spend."

She added: "We have a very good relationship with Dorset County Council and we would hope to continue to work with them in future. The difference is that we will have a business relationship with them. They will be a service we will use rather than being our employer."

The area's other secondary school, Beaminster School, has stated it has no intention of seeking Academy status at this time.

In a statement, head teacher Mike Best said: "The school is not actively considering any change of status. Governors will always seek to be well-informed about the implications".

Although adopting Academy status at one time indicated a school was failing, in recent years it has become seen as a way for a school to be financially and ideologically independent from local authorities such that today over half the secondary schools in England have become Academies.

Critics have expressed fears that teachers and support staff could be vulnerable to worsening pay and conditions and that some schools are using the policy to further religious agendas.

▲ STUDENTS from the Sir John Colfox School gave up their Sunday morning to serve breakfasts to hungry customers at the Green Yard Café. The girls laid on the full English fare in a bid to raise money for next year's Rock Challenge to be held in Bournemouth. The initiative aims to use performance art to promote anti-drug and crime-prevention messages among young people. More than 50 students are involved this year and they need to raise money to help pay for the coaches, costumes, make-up and staging that will go into their performance. Green Yard Café helped the cause by giving them use of the café on the day of the fund-raising drive. Katy Bird and friends are pictured above serving breakfasts.

Flooding hits Dorset again

FIRE crews were called out across the county as torrential rain caused regional flooding.

But although there was some localised flooding, especially in Burton Bradstock, Shipton Gorge and Thorncombe, the area escaped the worst of the flooding that caused so much disruption throughout the South West.

Dorset Fire and Rescue Service (DFRS) reported 70 responses to calls attributed to flooding over the week - including being called to the assistance of a driver trapped in their car at Thorncombe.

This compares to more than 150 calls over one weekend during the worst of the summer floods.

However a DFRS spokesman is urging drivers to exercise caution when driving through the standing water still evident on many of the county's roads.

He said: "We would still urge people not to drive through standing water of any significant depth.

"Not only do you risk becoming stranded, you pose a risk of further flooding to houses by the side of the road.

He continued: "Water pushed into houses in this way is a significant problem."

The forecast for the Bridport area is mainly dry for the coming week, although temperatures are expected to drop below freezing as the skies clear.

Childcare award for Bradpole Pre-School

A PRE-SCHOOL in Bridport has been recognised for its outstanding results at a special awards ceremony in Dorchester.

Bradpole Pre-School – which operates out of premises at the Sir John Colfox School, but has no ties with it – was presented with the award at the 2012 Early Years and Childcare Awards, organised by Dorset County Council.

The childcare facility was the only pre-school in Bridport to achieve the award which recognises when an OFSTED rating of 'outstanding' has been achieved.

Only three other childcare facilities – and one individual child minder – achieved the county-wide award.

Bradpole Pre-School leader Kat-

by Chris Denne
chris@pemedial.co.uk

heryn Cosser and deputy leader Shirley Paul collected the award on behalf of all staff.

Mrs Cosser said: "Achieving this is a joint effort so we are accepting the award on behalf of all 10 staff at the pre-school.

"The council limited the tickets to two per facility, or else we all would have gone.

She continued: "We are very proud and very pleased. We got a plaque and now are entitled to use a special logo on all our stationery. It's great to be the outstanding pre-school in Bridport.

"We have been working towards this for years and it feels great to have achieved our goal."

Jackie Last, DCC acting director for children's services, and Councillor Toni Coombs, cabinet member for children's services, presented the awards.

Mrs Coombs said: "We believe that the early years of a child's life are the most important in their development, so it's fantastic that there are a number of outstanding early years and childcare settings across Dorset."

Winners of the 2012 Early Years and Childcare Awards: Bradpole Pre-School (Bridport), Dorchester Opportunity Group (Dorchester), Jelly Babies Day Nursery (Weymouth), Panda Pre-School (Blandford), Joanna Merrett – child minder (Wool).

Kids' art to bring Christmas Cheer

BRIDPORT'S schoolchildren are getting creative this Christmas to bring some extra cheer to the town centre tree.

Christmas Cheer is an initiative to bring the artist out of the town's children as they design a unique decoration for the Christmas tree in Bucky Doo Square.

Decorations should be drawn on an A5 sheet of card and – if possible – laminated and hole-punched so it can be hung on the tree.

The decoration should be placed in an envelope with the full name, age, school and contact number for the child written on it, and dropped into Footprints at 46 East Street, Bridport, or the Bridport Tourist Information Centre, by Saturday, December 1st. Entries can be posted – if there's time!

The Christmas Cheer event will then take place on Wednesday, December 5th with prizes of £20, £10 and £5 on offer.

All eligible entries will be hung on the tree for the crowds to admire during the Christmas Cheer evening from 6pm to 8pm.

Organisers promise craft stalls among the attractions and say that local businesses have got behind the scheme to make the evening a very special seasonal affair.

Church series concludes with Canon Jane

THE last in a series of three sermons by senior women clerics at Bridport's St Mary's Church is to take place on Sunday.

Canon Jane Charman, from the Diocese of Salisbury, will deliver the sermon at Choral Evensong on Advent (Sunday, December 2nd).

The sermons mark the ministry of women in the church, past and present, and have been part of celebrations for the 350th anniversary of the Book of Common Prayer. Canon Charman's sermon will be on Mary of Magdala who witnessed Jesus' death, burial and resurrection.

The Canon is Diocesan director of learning for discipleship and ministry and has served in both urban and rural contexts in sector as well as parochial ministry.

She is a non-residentiary Canon of Salisbury Cathedral and a member of the Church of England General Synod.

Team Rector, Canon Andrew Evans, said: "This has been a really successful series and our guest preachers have shown what an outstanding pool of talent the Church of England has in its women ministers."

In 2013 in Lent there will be another series of sermons taking as their subject: 'Images of Eternity: Reimagining Heaven and Hell'.

Each of the monthly services of Choral Evensong is at 4 pm with the Choir of St Mary's Parish Church directed by Peter Jezard.

Town's first car charging point opens

THE future of motoring was ushered into Bridport when the town's first electric car charging port was declared open for business.

The port – which can charge up to two cars simultaneously – is run by AP Chant and can be found outside The Core, their centre for renewable energy in the Gore Cross estate.

The charging point uses electricity generated from 80 solar panels installed overhead, making charging an electric car doubly green. On cloudy days the port is topped up from the mains.

AP Chant director Lucy Chant explained why the company was promoting the green technology.

She said: "It's a natural progression for our company to move into this area. We have been championing newer, greener technologies in our buildings for a while now.

"This seems like an extension of that ethos. We realise that energy saving and green technologies are the future and we want to be at the forefront of that drive."

Test-running the port were two Nissan Leafs donated for the day by Nissan dealer FJ Chalke from Wincanton, Somerset. The Leaf is Nissan's flagship electric vehicle.

FJ Chalke commercial manager Shane Rendall explained the advantages of owning a Leaf.

He said: "When it comes to efficiency there really is no comparison. It costs £2 to charge a car to capacity. That's the equivalent cost of running a car that does 340 mpg.

"At the moment at this port it takes six hours to charge a car from empty to full. But at faster ports, such as at Fleet services, that's down to 30 minutes. There is already technology in Japan that can charge your car in a few minutes and no doubt it will find its way as more people start to drive electric cars."

AP Chant owner Ashley Chant described having an electric fleet as potentially ideal for his company.

He said: "Eventually you might see a shift over to electric vehicles for jobs around the town or in the locality.

"In terms of running costs it's a no-brainer. It also promotes a lifestyle change which includes sensible driving so it is potentially ideal for AP Chant."

Oliver! Beaminster School take on

THERE are good reasons why Lionel Bart's musical Oliver! – which tends to find its way back to the stage via Carol Reed's film adaptation – is beloved by institutions such as Beaminster School, which put on the show for two near-sellout nights.

It contains multiple roles made for youngsters – who delight in portraying gin-soaked ruffians – while for educators there is the chance to bring a Dickens tale vividly to life.

But best of all there are the songs – the standout,

■ Liam Fursman as Oliver

by Chris Denne

chris@pemedial.co.uk

wonderfully crafted numbers which for some musical lovers are all-but unbeatable in the genre.

Still, it is a technically challenging production that requires a great deal from cast and crew. That this production was such a success is down to the depth of talent evident in the school's ranks on and off-stage, as well as the dedication of their Head of Drama, the published playwright Valerie Goodwin, who directed, and Head of Music Nick Wardle, the show's musical director.

Spirited orphan Oliver (Liam Fursman, perfectly cast) escapes the workhouse overseen by the cruel, inflated Mr Bumble (elegantly played by Joe Pitfield) and Widow Corney (Kirsten Smith) and heads for the bright lights of London.

There he falls in with the Artful Dodger, played by Imogen Barnes and, on this occasion, 12-year-old Sydney O'Donovan who fairly lit up the stage with joyous conviction.

Dodger brings Oliver to Fagin (Oli Dodson) – a thieving hoarder who employs a gang of boys to pick pockets for him.

The boys' perilous yet fun-filled existence is given extra colour through the hard-playing Nancy (Nikki Hendrick – who if she applied to her entire performance the passion and confidence she brought to her show-stopping solos, could, on this showing, be a major talent).

But the shadow of Bill Sikes (Jack Bloss) – the menacing graduate of Fagin's own brand of finishing school – looms large over the operation, and when Oliver is arrested and brought under the wing of the well-to-do Mr Brownlow (Joe Arey) and his housekeeper (a convincing Hatti Amos) Sikes threatens to silence the boy with his cosh.

Nancy intervenes and loses her life. Sikes takes Oliver hostage only to be taken down by a policeman's shot, and our hero is safely ensconced back in what turns out to be his rightful family.

For all that happens to Oliver, the key to any production of this musical is the triangle formed by the Artful Dodger, Fagin and Bill Sikes. Although he is a scoundrel, Fagin has a conscience and is haunted by the knowledge that his little game turns lovable scamps like Dodger into murderous devils like Sikes.

Watching Fagin wrestle with the dubious characters his immoral trade has created is the most compelling feature of the story.

Good then that all three parts were entirely believable and delivered with brio. Oli Dodson gave us shades of self-doubt amid the knockabout clowning the role of Fagin demands, Sydney O'Donovan's Dodger was bursting with charisma, and Jack Bloss as Sikes was genuinely chilling.

And yet it was 13-year-old Liam Fursman who most captured the audience. Seemingly born for the role of Oliver, he was outstanding in portraying the vulnerability that comes with being good to the core.

He acted and sung – like every great performer should – like he meant it, and he has a heavenly singing voice to boot.

Throughout the production a live six-piece band – three of whom (James Reed, Lydia Roberts and Ella Horne) were youngsters – took up the daunting challenge of providing the music.

This was an enormous task – Oliver! is virtually an opera at times – and the musicians deserve huge respect for pulling it off at all, let alone with such virtuosity.

Charity looks to join forces with other good causes

A FUNDRAISING charity is appealing to other good causes to join forces in a bid to make bringing in cash more efficient.

The South West Coast Path Association is offering other charities the chance to join them in their Great South West Walk next Spring by selling 'Golden Bonds' in exchange for administration services.

Charities can buy a £60 Golden Bond in return for SWCPA carrying out the logistics and administrative tasks associated with setting up the fundraising event.

SWCPA say this will enable charities to focus their time on attracting walkers to raise funds.

Chairman of the Great South West Walk, Ken Carter, said: "Throughout the year we see various charities benefiting from walks around the South West Coast Path and the organisation involved is considerable.

"With our Great South West Walk everything is in place for the charities - from posters and registration forms to the web site and entry system.

"We will also deal with issues such as transport and insurance for walkers - leaving charities to just focus on the task of engaging supporters for their own cause."

He continued: "The £60 from

by Chris Denne

each Golden Bond will help cover our costs, as well as raise some funds towards our own target of £250,000 for the Coast Path itself.

Many take for granted that the path will always be there as a vital fundraising tool, when in fact funding for its maintenance has shrunk in recent years.

"The £250,000 that we are raising is for improvement projects to the path, over and above general maintenance, to ensure it is accessible and of a surface safe to walk on all year round."

Golden Bonds must be purchased by February 1st 2013, and each charity's walkers must be registered with the SWCPA by February 18th.

Charities are welcome to get involved with just one or several legs of the walk with the cost of a bond for one leg being £60 and then £10 per leg thereafter to enable charities to build different sizes of challenges appropriate for their supporters.

For more information, or discuss the Golden Bond places, please contact the SWCPA on swcpteam@devon.gov.uk

Three Horseshoes stay in Michelin Guide

A CHEF at a popular local pub has made it into an elite food guide for the second year running.

Karl Bashford of Powerstock's Three Horseshoes pub impressed gourmets enough to make it into the 2013 the Michelin Guide to Great Britain and Ireland.

Achieving a place in the guide is considered akin to winning an Oscar of food.

Karl has been landlord and chef at the Three Horseshoes since taking over the pub three years ago.

He said: "We are delighted to hear that we have maintained our presence in the guide for a second year. Inclusion in this publication really makes a tangible difference to our business."

He added: "Being in a very rural location means that people have to really make the effort to come and eat here.

"A recommendation in the Michelin Guide will persuade them to go that extra mile".

Karl has developed a reputation in Dorset for inventive culinary skills which he has perfected over a career that has spanned several years.

His signature style combines real pub grub with a gourmet twist with pies a speciality. Karl tends his own vegetable garden and also forages for a number of his ingredients in the surrounding countryside.

He is passionate about local produce and will only purchase and serve produce that is actually grown and/or reared in the immediate vicinity

West Dorset Scouts in karting challenge

■ The 1st West Bay Sea Scouts pushing their champion kart

FREEWHEELING scouts from across West Dorset took to the hills to race their home-built box karts.

The day of races was organised by Scout Active Support along with the Dorchester and West Dorset District (DWDD) Scouting team – formed this year to unite the scouts of the two former districts.

The new organisation is formed of scouts – both boys and girls – from 19 scout groups, making it the largest district in Dorset.

To qualify for the event, the 16 hand-built karts had to be assembled from scratch with no kits or shop-built karts allowed.

Each team of three – one driver, two pushers – took on a trio of courses designed to test the karts over three disciplines – downhill, cross-country and road-race – at the Freshwater Holiday Park near Burton Bradstock.

The event – which was resurrected last year after a 12-year absence – included the challenge of crossing a muddy River Bride.

The winning kart over all three legs was the 1st West Bay Sea Scouts' 'Inclolosmantes' team which won two of the three races as well as the prize for best presented kart.

The 1st Charmouth Scouts' 'Cool

by Chris Denne
chris@pemedial.co.uk

Runners' took second prize, with 1st Bridport Scouts' 'Happy Snappers' coming in third place.

DWDD's Ash Hunt told how the karts had varied in design – and quality.

He said: "Some were built for speed, some built for stability and durability, and some built which were always going to fall apart."

Kevin Payne, Scout Leader at 1st Charmouth said, "This year's event was another great success with even more karts lining up on the grid."

"The addition of the mud slide to the cross country race made working as a team even more important."

Mark Wellman, Assistant District Commissioner for the Scouts, added: "Some of the karts fell to bits, but most stayed in one piece, including two which had been lashed together using a variety of poles and broom handles, making them a real advert for their troop's pioneering skills."

● CUBS and Scouts across West Dorset took the plunge at the Scout Active Support swimming gala, hosted by Bridport's Leisure Centre.

The competition – which has been running for 15 years – culminated in close finishes in each age group as the results were totted up.

The Cubs section (8-10 year olds) was won by 1st Charmouth Scouts, with 1st West Bay Sea Scouts coming a very close second, and 1st Bridport coming in third.

The Scouts competition (10-14 years old) also went right to the wire with the 1st Bradford Abbas and 1st Mosterton finishing in joint first place on the same number of points; the two groups will share the shield. The 1st Charmouth Scouts came third.

The other groups taking part were 1st Bride Valley, 1st Bradford Abbas, Central Dorchester, 1st Martinstown and 1st Milbourne St Andrew.

MP Oliver Letwin at business breakfast

A GROUP of local businesses recently enjoyed the chance to quiz their MP over breakfast.

The event, organised by the Pineapple Group, based in Salway Ash, gave business leaders the chance to question West Dorset MP Oliver Letwin about the government's policies and their effect on local business.

The informal breakfast, held at Highlands End Holiday Park, near Eype, saw more than 20 local businesses cover all aspects of the local economy.

Oliver Letwin was quizzed for close to two hours ensuring everyone had the chance to have their say.

Andrew Dyke of the Pineapple Group described the event as "very positive."

He said: "We wanted an informal event where business people could ask and get answers to their questions. In fact the breakfast could have gone on for much longer."

He continued: "Oliver Letwin listened to what people had to say, explained the government's position and where necessary agreed to take matters further. The feedback from all who attended has been very positive."

Give the gift of safe driving

THE team at Dorset Highways is using the season of goodwill to encourage people to buy their loved-ones the gift of improved driving skills.

The county council department is selling vouchers for 'practical driver courses' which can be redeemed for 90 minutes behind the wheel with a Dorset Highways approved driving instructor.

Dorset Highways describe the vouchers as "a great Christmas gift for anyone who wants to be a more confident driver and improve their driving skills."

Each one-off session – cost £37.50 – takes place in the owner's car and includes town and country driving in a bid to reduce the risk of collisions.

Vouchers can be bought through the Dorset Highways Road Safety Team (01305 224558) or from your local approved driving instructor found at www.dorsetforyou.com/dorsetdriver

The vouchers have an expiry date of December 2013 and are sent with the intended drivers name on.

Dorset County Council Traffic Safety Manager Robert Smith said: "Research suggests that human error is a contributing factor in nearly all road collisions, and we want our residents to have the knowledge and skills to stay safe behind the wheel."

"The practical driving sessions aim to update and improve your driving skills to reduce the chance of you becoming involved in a collision."

"You can also ask the instructor for help with things that may be bothering you. This is not an exam, and there is no pass or fail, we want our residents to be the safest drivers in the country."

Dorset Highways conclude: "What better way is there to say 'I care about you' than to help your loved one stay safe on the road with a voucher for a practical driver course."

Information wanted on alleged assault

DETECTIVES are appealing for witnesses and anyone with information to come forward after a woman was allegedly assaulted in the town.

The victim, a 33-year-old woman from Bridport, was allegedly hugged and kissed by a man but was not injured.

A 25-year-old man from Beaminster has been arrested and has been released on bail.

Although not injured, the victim was described as "very shaken".

The incident happened between 2am and 2:30am on Sunday, November 18th 2012 on South Street.

Detective Constable Gerald Marchant, of Western CID, said: "The victim was very distressed and shaken."

"I am very keen to speak to anyone who may have witnessed the incident or has any information that can help me establish exactly what happened."

A spokesperson for victim support said that any kind of physical assault can be upsetting for victims.

She said: "I cannot comment on alleged events or individual experiences and can only speak generally."

"But any kind of physical touching can be very upsetting and traumatic for some people."

"Victims of any kind of assault can feel concerned about their physical safety making them fearful that it might happen again."

Witnesses and anyone with information should call Dorset Police in confidence on 101 quoting incident number 18:66.

Alternatively, call the free and anonymous Crimestoppers line on 0800 555 111 where mobile phone tariffs may apply.

Charity toys stolen from collection point

DORSET Police are investigating the theft of toys intended as Christmas gifts for children from a charity collection point.

The toys which were being collected by the Dorset Echo as part of the newspaper's Christmas Toy Appeal were stolen from Tesco's St Thomas Street Store in Weymouth.

The annual Echo Toy Appeal gathers toys to distribute to children who would not otherwise receive any by positioning collection bins at stores across the area.

A woman described as an "opportunistic thief" entered the Tesco store and pulled the bin bag containing the toys from the plastic collection bin before making off.

Prince opens new hospital ward

by Chris Denne
chris@pemedial.co.uk

DORSET County Hospital received a Royal visit to mark the opening of a new ward for cancer patients.

HRH The Prince of Wales marked the occasion by unveiling a plaque at the 14-bed Fortuneswell Ward before going on to visit the hospital's mammography suite and orthopedic ward.

Shortly before the arrival of Prince Charles, the hospital's chief executive, Jean O'Callaghan, said: "We feel incredibly honoured to have him visiting the hospital today.

"Prior to this we used to treat people with cancer in wards all over the hospital. Now we have been able to create this one ward - it's a beautiful facility and the staff are all trained so people who are experiencing cancer can get really good care in one place."

This was Prince Charles' first visit to the hospital in 25 years after he opened the hospital's first new wing in 1987.

On this visit to Dorchester the Royal also planted an oak tree, donated by the charity Trees for Dorset, at Middle Farm, Poundbury, to mark the Queen's Diamond Jubilee.

❄️ 115 Club

THE 115 Club is a Wine and Dine Music Venue, sited beneath the Bridge House Hotel at 115 East Street, Bridport, aiming to showcase the finest selection of British musical talents after Dinner. Primarily Jazz (both modern and traditional), but styles such as Blues, Soul, Latin & R&B are also performed. Modelled on Steve Rubie's famous 606 Jazz Club in Chelsea, this Club, every second Thursday, present established musicians together with up and coming artists from all over the Country.

There is no entry fee, instead the diners fund the musicians from an optional Music Charge paid in cash when settling your food and drinks bill at the end of the night. This charge is paid directly to the performers. Taking a selection of dishes from the Wine Bar and Brasserie Menu, 115 presents a relaxed evening of Dinner and Music to be enjoyed in the most perfect ambience and a chance to absorb professional music in an intimate and up close environment, alongside delectable cuisine and fine wines and beers.

The next performers at 115 Club will be Andy Grant & Simon Rushbrook on Thursday 6th December. Simon, having played at 115 before (accompanying Julie Lewis), knows only too well how style and passion make the 115 Club the music venue to play at, however Andy Grant, Front man of "The Andy Grant Trio" has yet to experience the atmosphere and ambience that the Club has to offer. Andy Grant is a guitarist who has drawn comparisons to an eclectic mix of artists over the years including J.J. Cale, Led Zeppelin & John Martyn. The clean style of acoustic sound provides a solid foundation to hop through the genres of music, offering up a selection and evening of special performance with seemingly limitless boundaries. Between the two performers Andy & Simon rack up the astonishing number of over 150 gigs a year, including festivals and clubs, entertaining around the South West area, as well as further a field. For more information about Andy & Simon check out www.andygrant.net or www.reverbnation.com/andygrant. Pre-booking for hot buffet dinner (£10.00 per person) between 7:00 and 8:00 pm is essential and guests should telephone on the day (between 2:00 and 6:00pm) to confirm numbers in their party. At which time they will be informed of the cover charge - anticipated at between £5 and £10 per guest. Unfortunately late-comers cannot be accommodated as dining must be completed before the music starts at about 9:00pm. Visit the 115 Club's own site at www.115club.com or www.facebook.com/115club

CHRISTMAS IN BRIDPORT AND WEST BAY

❄️ Battens Jewellers

ENGLISH CARRIAGE CLOCKS, HANDMADE IN BRIDPORT, AVAILABLE FOR CHRISTMAS!!

THE HENLEY Carriage Clock, the only carriage clock made in England, is being handmade in Bridport at Battens Jewellers. Richard Batten who opened his first shop in Bridport in 1974, is well-known for being a clock repairer and restorer as well as a traditional jeweller. In 2011 Richard set up his company English Carriage Clocks and started making the famous HENLEY carriage clock; a clock he had sold in his shop for many years when it was made in Henley by Roger Field, the founder and producer. When Roger Field retired, some 20 years ago, production of these famous clocks stopped too. Rather than see the famous HENLEY Carriage Clock disappear completely, Richard decided to re-establish his friend's business. All the original tooling, press tools, gear cutting engines and many components were shipped from Roger Field's home in Henley to their new home in Bridport, Dorset.

The English Carriage Clock Company is now making three variants – Henley Anglaise, Henley Obis and Henley Ovale. Since starting to produce these handcrafted time pieces Richard has received some significant orders including producing carriage clocks for the Buckingham Palace Shop and more recently for the Diamond Jubilee.

Although the clocks are normally made to order, to give the people of Bridport and surrounding areas an opportunity to treat themselves, to buy as a gift or just to admire, three Henley clocks have been made especially to sell for Christmas. They will be on display in Battens Jewellers' shop window, South Street, Bridport, during December.

Matthew receives his bravery medal from the palace

A DORSET man who rescued a neighbour's family from a burning building was presented with the Queen's Gallantry award.

Matthew Robinson received the award at a Buckingham Palace ceremony in recognition of his bravery in rescuing five children from the blaze in Abbotsbury in 2010.

Asked what it is like to be a hero, the 20-year-old mechanic said: "It feels quite good, I'm not going to lie."

He continued: "It is good to know that the Queen realises that people in our own country do stuff that is heroic as well."

Mr Robinson, 20, heard Tracee Barlow screaming for help as her children were trapped in their home when it caught fire, in January 2010.

Mr Robinson's mother Jackie Robinson, got a ladder and helped three of the children escape.

But Mr Robinson went even further, venturing inside the burning house to gather Ms Barlow's son Jack, 11, and daughter Chantelle, five, before passing them out of the window to his father, Roy Robinson.

Dorset Police have said there would "almost certainly have been a more serious, if not a fatal, consequence" if it had not been for the Robinsons' actions.

Maddy Prior and Carnival Band come to Weymouth

FOLK legend Maddy Prior and The Carnival Band come to Weymouth Pavilion Ocean Room tomorrow night (November 30th).

They will be bringing their hugely popular show, Carols and Capers, as part of celebrations marking their 25 years together.

Music will feature festive favourites such as 'The Holly and the Ivy' and 'I Saw Three Ships' rubbing shoulders with secular carols like 'The Boar's Head' and dance tunes like 'Old Joe Clark'.

The Carnival Band are five voices, 25 instruments and five dozen styles of music, as well as 500 fresh ideas for music making, combining music from across the centuries with sounds from around the world in an irreverently joyous mix.

It was a happy accident when the Carnival Band happened to come across Maddy Prior when they were thrown together in 1984 on a "let's see what we come up with" basis for a Yuletide Radio Two broadcast.

What began as a one-off session in a village hall in Cumbria has endured for over 20 years and has become something of a tradition in its own right with regular tours and five albums released.

Following the hugely popular 2010 Christmas tour with the Carnival band, a couple of years touring with Steeleye Span, and as a trio with Giles Lewin and Hannah James, Maddy is now once again joining up with the Carnival Band for this coming festive season for their unique celebratory show Carols & Capers.

Together they will mix renaissance, modern and ethnic instruments with a refreshing cavalier attitude and plenty of humour putting their inimitable stamps on a range of familiar and not-so-familiar festive fare.

Maddy said: "I love working with the chaps. It's just so different and they're so off the wall."

"Coming from a folk background I can relate to a lot of their dances and early music, but anything less like serious academic concerts when we tour you can't imagine."

"When we go out at Christmas, it's all streamers, balloons and lunacy."

Not too late to help a child this Christmas

IT'S NOT too late for anyone in Dorset to help Operation Christmas Child (OCC) deliver its 100 millionth shoebox this year.

Over the past 22 years, through OCC, Samaritan's Purse has delivered 94 million shoeboxes to needy children in over 100 countries and is looking to lift this total to 100 million and beyond this Christmas.

While the general deadline for dropping off shoeboxes has now passed, there is still time for people to wrap and pack shoeboxes, provided they are able to drop them off at Shoe Zone stores by December 3rd.

There's also good news for people too busy to wrap and pack shoeboxes; through Shoebox World, now in its third year, busy folk, or those who are unable to get out, can create and send their shoebox/es online.

Dorset Area Coordinators for Operation Christmas Child, Peter and Eileen Ivemee say: "There's no need to go rushing out to shops at this busy time of year. Everything can be done online, even up until Christmas Eve, and we'll do the rest to ensure that each shoebox will make a big difference to a child in need."

"Visitors can choose from a selection of toys, education supplies, hygiene accessories and other items which are placed in a shoebox by our volunteers before sending it for distribution overseas to vulnerable children aged between 2 and 14 years of age. A personalised message and photo can also be added, if desired."

Samaritan's Purse UK Executive Director Simon Barrington said: "We want to remind the children of the world that, whatever their circumstances, people in the UK do care about them and are thinking about them this Christmas."

Online shoeboxes can be created from £11 and Shoebox World will be taking orders from anyone living in the UK, or those with UK credit cards living abroad, up to and including Christmas Day.

CHRISTMAS IN DORCHESTER

LATER NIGHT SHOPPING EVERY THURSDAY FROM 6TH DECEMBER

Dorchester's big switch on...

THE cast of this year's Weymouth pantomime will switch on the Christmas Lights in Dorchester this year.

▲ Andy Abraham

Dorchester Chamber of Commerce has announced that it is working to make this year's Christmas Lights evening bigger and better than ever. The official switch on will take place at 6.30pm on Thursday, December 6th.

The cast from this year's Weymouth Pantomime, Jack and the Beanstalk, will be there including X Factor finalist and platinum selling recording artist Andy Abraham. The Chamber say they expect there to be between forty and sixty stalls open for Christmas shopping while local traders are also encouraged to stay open for the evening to help make it an even bigger success.

The Old Tea House

Bring back the traditional English afternoon tea time!

AFTERNOON tea at the Old Tea House 'Bring back the traditional English tea time!'

Relax and make time for tea.

This is how Country Living Magazine described this teahouse built in 1635. Afternoon tea bridges the divide between young and old, everyone from small children to grandparents enjoys teatime.

TrustMark

TRUSTMARK is a quality mark which operates a framework under which 30 plus scheme operators work in the RMI (repair, maintenance and improvement) sector, including trade associations, local government trading standards teams, and independent scheme operators. These schemes are approved to carry the TrustMark logo and recruit reputable and trustworthy tradesmen. This enables the TrustMark scheme operators to promote improved RMI sector standards, and tackle related issues such as better enforcement. All of these scheme operators are audited annually by TrustMark, to ensure processes, standards and complaint procedures are being maintained.

What makes selecting TrustMark tradesmen so worthwhile?

1. A firm's technical skills have been independently checked through regular on-site inspections, as well as checks on their trading record and financial status;
2. Firms have signed up to a code of practice that includes insurance, good health and safety practices and customer care;

3. The approved scheme operator has checked and will continue to monitor the firm's quality of work, trading practices and customer satisfaction;

4. Firms are able to offer an Insurance Backed Warranty;

5. Deposit Protection Insurance is available for consumers in the event a firm should cease trading;

6. Firms will be able to tell you about any building regulations you must comply with and may also be able to provide appropriate certificates;

7. If you have a problem or disagreement with the firm, there will be a clear and user-friendly complaints procedure to help resolve the issue;

8. The scheme is fully supported by Government, the building industry and consumer protection groups.

9. All of these checks will give you - Peace of Mind

If a firm displays our TrustMark logo you know that we have approved and inspected the firm through one of our scheme operators and found that the firm meets the required Government endorsed criteria as described above. Find out more on how to avoid rogue traders.

Important Note:

When employing a TrustMark tradesman always check they are 'licensed' for all the trades / work you are asking them to carry out. This can be done by looking on our website by searching under the 'trade' then 'their company name' and finally 'more information' - you will then see a list of the 'only' trades that the firm is licensed for under the protection and standards offered by TrustMark

Windows & Security

FENSA

FENSA stands for the Fenestration Self-Assessment Scheme. Following Government encouragement, FENSA has been set up by the Glass and Glazing Federation (GGF) and other industry bodies in response to Building Regulations for double glazing companies in England and Wales.

When replacing windows and doors, homeowners must comply with current thermal performance standards and ensure they get a certificate from FENSA or Local Authority Building Control. FENSA enables companies that install replacement windows and doors to self-certify compliance under these Building Regulations without the need for a separate assessment from Building Control.

Why FENSA?

An independent report commissioned by the Government found FENSA to be the most successful of all competent person schemes to date in the UK, across all industries. FENSA is the leading brand trusted by consumers, all Local Authorities, industry and Government.

FENSA is the industry standard for replacement window and door installers self-certifying compliance with the building regulations.

Here is why you should look for the FENSA logo

when having replacement windows and doors fitted in your property:

Save time and costs

- You do not have to register your window or door installation with the local authority yourself. Not only is the FENSA approach much faster and easier – it will also save you up to £250!
- Compliance with the Building Regulations without the added cost and time of arranging assessment by Building Control

- If you own properties across different local authorities – for consistency of quality and price, you are able to use the same FENSA installer for all installations, as they can work in all Local Authority jurisdictions

Confidence in FENSA installers

- FENSA is the brand trusted by all local authorities, industry and government.
- An independent report commissioned by the Government found FENSA to be the most successful of all competent person schemes to date in the UK, across all industries. Click here
- Vetting: All FENSA registered companies are continually re-assessed by an independent inspection body to ensure consistency of Building Regulations adherence and service.

- Nearly 9000 companies nationwide have joined FENSA which include glazing companies, builders, national and smaller home improvements companies, local authorities, housing associations, property developers. If all these companies trust and use FENSA, consumers can too. If all these companies trust FENSA, homeowners can too.

- FENSA does not demand any specific brand of insurance from its installers – homeowners and installers have freedom of choice over insurance providers whose policies are underwritten by 'different' insurance companies (FENSA is not insurance-led)

- FENSA proactively protects consumers from the cowboys – not only by withholding the scheme from those unable to pass FENSA's independent assessments; but also by reporting to Local Authorities and Trading Standards companies who erroneously claim FENSA registration, to enable prosecution.

- Customers are able to provide a rating score for installers on the feedback form.

Gas Safe Register

GAS Safe Register is the official gas registration body for the United Kingdom, Isle of Man and Guernsey, appointed by the relevant Health and Safety Authority for each area. By law all gas engineers must be on the Gas Safe Register.

Gas Safe Register replaced CORGI as the gas registration body in Great Britain and Isle of Man on 1 April 2009 and Northern Ireland and Guernsey on 1 April 2010.

What does Gas Safe Register do?

The main focus of the Register is on improving and maintaining gas safety to the highest standards. We make sure all 123,000 gas engineers on the Register are qualified to work with gas.

We work to protect the public from unsafe gas work through;

- a dedicated national investigations team tracking down individuals working illegally

- regular inspections of Gas Safe registered engineers
 - educating consumers and raising awareness of gas safety
 - investigating reports of unsafe gas work
- Gas Safe Register is here to help keep you and your family safe. Using a Gas Safe registered engineer is the only way to make sure your gas appliances are safe.

What is a Gas Safe registered engineer?

A Gas Safe registered engineer has been checked to make sure they are competent and qualified to work safely and legally with gas.

To find a gas engineer in your area you can use our find a Gas Safe registered business service online www.gassaferegister.co.uk or call 0800 408 5500.

How do I know my gas engineer is qualified to do the work?

Gas engineers will often have a range of qualifications that allow them to carry out specific types of gas work. It's important to check what work they are qualified to do before you use them. You can find this information using our check an engineer service on our website and by looking on the back of their Gas Safe Register ID card.

Every gas engineer carries a Gas Safe Register ID card with their own unique licence number, showing the type of gas work they are qualified to do. Before any gas work is carried out, always make sure you ask to see their Gas Safe Register ID card.

Why do I need to make sure my gas engineer is on the Gas Safe Register?

It's all about safety. If someone other than a Gas Safe registered engineer does the gas work in your home, you could be risking the safety of your family and your property. Badly fitted and poorly serviced gas appliances can cause gas leaks, fires, explosions and carbon monoxide poisoning.

Change old negatives to new positives

DON'T "learn to live with it" – learn to live without it. You know how powerful your mind can be when it's stuck in a rut, repeating old habits even though you don't want it to. So imagine that much power working for you in a good way instead.

Susan Gale, of the Beltain Centre in Dorchester, uses Hypnotherapy to help you change old negatives to new positives.

A Registered Hypnotherapist, she is a Member of the Institute of Natural Therapy and holds the Senior Qualification in Hypnotherapy Practice. She has a wide range of techniques to help solve your problems.

Susan has been working as a hypnotherapist since 1989 and her caring nature, friendly approach, comprehensive training and wide experience make her a very understanding, patient and effective therapist. She has helped many people clear many different problems. Whether it's breaking habits or breaking free of old problems, it's always much easier when your mind is in positive mode instead of negative. And when your subconscious is actively working with you of course.

Her experience can help you break free. Take a look at her website www.beltain.co.uk or phone her on 01305 267069 to see how she could help you.

British Association for Counselling and Psychotherapy

THE British Association for Counselling and Psychotherapy (BACP) is a large organisation that many counsellors around the UK are registered with. They're not only a charity but also an accrediting body that set certain standards and codes of ethics for counsellors and psychotherapists to adhere to. If counsellors are accredited by the BACP it means they have completed a substantial level of training and experience approved by the Association.

The British Association for Counselling was established in the 1970s, it wasn't until September 2000 that they recognised the need to represent psychotherapy as well as counselling, therefore changing their name to the British Association for Counselling and Psychotherapy (BACP). BACP is the biggest and most well known accrediting body across the UK who works with both individual counsellors and organisations. www.bacp.co.uk

Renowned dancer, producer and choreographer Niki runs the Lyric Theatre with Marc Parrett. The day long workshop is aimed at adults of all abilities. It encourages participants to tap into their own resources, introducing them to new theatrical and performance styles.

The day is perfect for anyone who wants a challenge or simply to have fun! Past participants have commented on how friendly the group was and how much their confidence grew as a result of taking part.

Places cost £15 or £12 for concessions. For further information please contact Bridport Arts Centre on 01308 424204.

Talented duo are next performers at 115 Club

BREAK THE CHAIN broke the mould, the three piece group, who against the weather conditions made it to 115 Club to showcase a fabulous evening of eclectic musical entertainment. Burt, Acacia and Karl, together for only just a year performed with their individual seasoned experience with the confidence of a group of many years experience. Giving their own spin on many classics from the world of soft rock and blues, Break The Chain have most certainly stamped their mark on the 115 Club regulars, their return will be a well awaited occasion.

115 Club will host Andy Grant and Simon Rushbrook on Thursday, December 6th, Simon having played at 115 before (accompanying Julie Lewis) knows only too well how style and passion make the 115 Club, the music venue to play at, however Andy Grant, Front man of "The Andy Grant Trio" has yet to experience the atmosphere and ambience that the Club has to offer.

Andy Grant is a guitarist who has drawn comparisons to an eclectic mix of artists over the years including J.J. Cale, Led Zepelin and John Martyn. The clean style of acoustic sound provides a solid foundation to hop through the genres of music, offering up a selection and evening of special performance with seemingly limitless boundaries. Between the two performers Andy and Simon rack up the astonishing number of over 150 gigs a year, including festivals and clubs, entertaining around the South West area, as well as further a field. For more information about Andy and Simon check out www.andygrant.net or www.reverbNation.com/andygrant

Pre-booking for hot buffet dinner (£10.00 per person) between 7pm and 8pm is essential and guests should telephone on the day (between 2pm and 6pm) to confirm numbers in their party. At which time they will be informed of the cover charge – anticipated at between £5 and £10 per guest. Unfortunately late-comers cannot be accommodated as dining must be completed before the music starts at about 9:00pm.

A sprig of Christmas Holly at the Marine Theatre

IN NOVEMBER 1992, the Lincoln Theatre Royal saw the first ever Buddy Holly and the Crickets show.

Since then, the act has toured venues from Barking to Bangkok, from Swindon to Sweden and from Cardiff to the Caribbean, delighting audiences the world over.

Whether it's a theatre, an open air festival or a royal gala, from the USA to the UAE and from the Royal Albert Hall to the Stirling Albert Halls, this fantastic show is guaranteed to have everyone singing along to the music and dancing in the aisles.

More than 30 of the finest and most talented actor-musicians in the business have, over the past 20 years donned the DJs and rock'n'rolled the house. Aside from numerous TV appearances, their combined West End credits include Buddy, Lennon, Return to The Forbidden Planet, Jailhouse Rock, Les Miserables, Great Balls of Fire, Sunday In The Park With George and many, many more. The credentials of the current crop of Crickets are no less impressive and their performance just as powerful and energetic as ever.

Fancy Man Paul Tonkinson comes to Bridport

Michael McIntyre's favourite comedian performs at The Electric Palace this Thursday

LIVE, direct from London's Comedy Store, Michael McIntyre's favourite comedian Paul Tonkinson is set to play a one off date at the Electric Palace!

McIntyre is a huge fan of Tonkinson and declares him 'Hilarious. Nobody makes me laugh like Paul Tonkinson. Simply one of the best comedians around. GO SEE HIM!'

After storming the UK and International comedy circuit for years and much badgering from fellow professionals, Yorkshireman, and former (double award-winning) Time Out Comedian of the Year, Tonkinson takes to the road, with his eagerly anticipated debut tour 'Fancy Man'. He's recently appeared on BBC One's Michael McIntyre's Comedy Roadshow, and is fresh from dazzling victory on Ch4's hit show Celebrity Come Dine With Me.

Audiences can now encounter the full Tonkinson phenomenon; a master of physicality and impressions with a plethora of first class material brought to life with tremendous charm and infectious energy. Expect explosive, exuberant, tender comic reflections on love, food, family and the day-to-day idiosyncrasies of early 21st century living from one of the finest comedians in the UK. A guarantee of first-class laughs from a sensational live performer and top-billing stand-up star. Not to be missed!

Paul Tonkinson will be performing live at the Electric Palace on Thursday 29th November. Tickets are £12.00 in advance from Bridport Tourist Info Centre 01308 424901 or online at www.seetickets.com Doors open 7.00pm

MOZART FROM THE MET

LA CLEMENZA di Tito is an opera seria in two acts composed by Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart. It was started after the bulk of The Magic Flute, the last opera that Mozart worked on, was already written (Mozart completed The Magic Flute after the Prague premiere of Tito on 6 September 1791).

The opera was first performed publicly on 6 September 1791 in Prague and remained popular for many years after Mozart's death. It was the first Mozart opera to reach London, receiving its première there at His Majesty's Theatre on 27 March 1806.

In a new production from the Metropolitan Opera House, New York, the virtuosic Elina Garanča sings Sesto in Mozart's drama set in ancient Rome. Giuseppe Filianoti is the noble Tito and Barbara Frittoli is Vitellia, in this handsome revival of one of the composer's final masterpieces. Harry Bicket conducts.

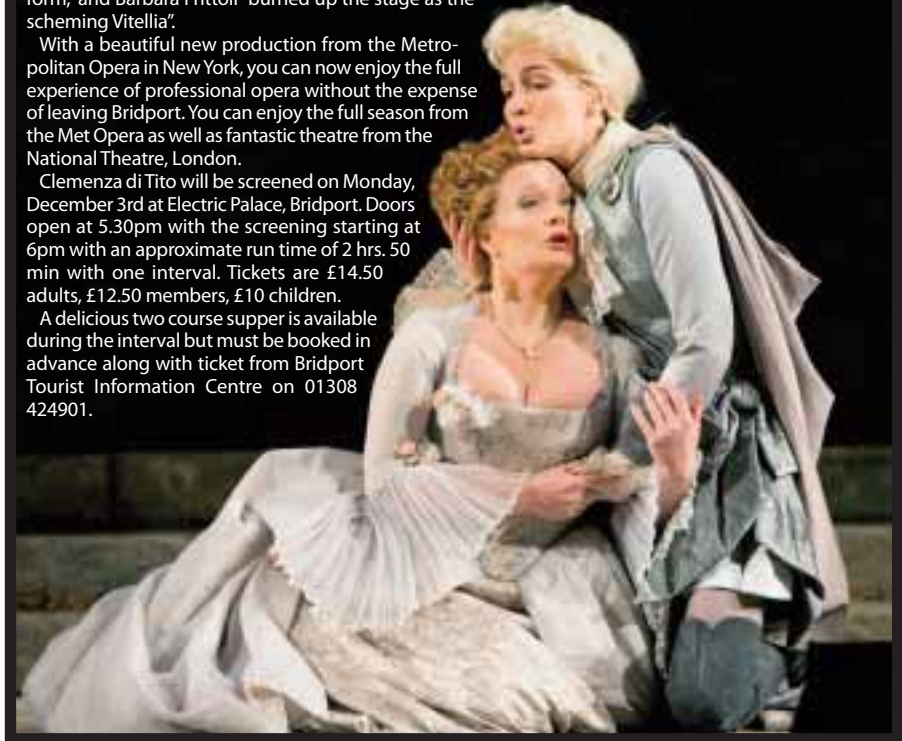

Elina Garanča has been receiving breathtaking reviews, including the New York Post "sleek and beautiful, with a lustrous voice" is "a splendid interpreter" of Sesto; "she produces luminous sounds that seem to linger suspended in the air like shining pearls."

As Tito, Giuseppe Filianoti "soared to virile, commanding form," and Barbara Frittoli "burned up the stage as the scheming Vitellia".

With a beautiful new production from the Metropolitan Opera in New York, you can now enjoy the full experience of professional opera without the expense of leaving Bridport. You can enjoy the full season from the Met Opera as well as fantastic theatre from the National Theatre, London.

Clemenza di Tito will be screened on Monday, December 3rd at Electric Palace, Bridport. Doors open at 5.30pm with the screening starting at 6pm with an approximate run time of 2 hrs. 50 min with one interval. Tickets are £14.50 adults, £12.50 members, £10 children.

A delicious two course supper is available during the interval but must be booked in advance along with ticket from Bridport Tourist Information Centre on 01308 424901.

Wessex Military Band Christmas Concert

A STOLEN minibus and damage to several expensive instruments during the course of this year have not put off the Wessex Military Band performing across the country and in Europe. Thankfully, due to the diligence of our local police, the band minibus was eventually recovered and useable, but definitely the worse for wear. However, the determination of the band not to let its patrons down saw the voluntary members and other bands rally round finding ingenious ways of transporting the vast amounts of equipment needed during the minibuses absence and finding replacements when players were without instruments to play. All in all this year has proved that the music community continues to be strong throughout the whole area and beyond, each band supporting the other where needed. If you are over 16 years and would like to become a part of this community by joining the Wessex Military Band please contact them by phoning the number below. All sections of woodwind, brass and percussion required.

Following the bands appearance at the very successful Bridport Remembrance Parade on 11th November they are holding a Christmas Concert at Bridport Arts Centre on Sunday 2nd December at 3pm and welcomes everyone to come along for an afternoon of musical entertainment to cheer up your winters day. Why not have Sunday lunch out, enjoy the concert then home before the cold evening sets in, a lovely treat.

Tickets: £8.50 /£6.50 concs - please contact Bridport Arts Centre - Box Office 010308 424204 and online. The band looks forward to seeing you all.

LAST SHOW OF 2012 FOR COMEDY CAFÉ

MUSICAL comedian Vikki Stone is headlining the final comedy café night of 2012 at the Bridport Arts Centre next week.

Since being crowned winner of the 2011 Soho Theatre One Night Stand Up award, Vikki Stone's career has gone from strength to strength, most recently appearing on I'm a Celebrity Get Me out of Here on ITV2 and on This Morning, where she serenaded Philip Schofield.

Vikki's debut Edinburgh show last year was chosen as one of the must see shows of the 2011 festival drawing high praise from the likes of The Independent, The Observer and Heat Magazine.

Likened to everyone from a modern day Victoria Wood to Kate Nash, if she were invented by Viz magazine, Vikki Stone has drawn praise from some of the toughest critics in comedy for her vivacious, naughty and self deprecating comedy.

Joining Vikki on the line up will be a full supporting line up of new talent and regular compere Tom Glover.

"This is our last show of 2012 and with Vikki Stone headlining I'm sure we will go out laughing," said Tom.

"Vikki isn't a household name just yet but she deserves to be, and I'm sure she will be recognised by a few in the audience for her recent TV appearances."

The comedy café is taking a break over Christmas but we will be back on February 8th with the first of the shows for 2013.

The BAC Comedy Cafe will be at 8pm on Friday, November 30th. Tickets are £5 adults/£3 concessions and available from the arts centre box office on 01308 424204.

Asaf Sirkis Jazz Trio and Adult Konnakol Workshop at Bridport Arts Centre

ASAF Sirkis will be leading one of Bridport Arts Centres most hotly anticipated adult workshops on Friday, December 7th, from 4-6pm before showing off his skills on stage with the Asaf Sirkis Trio at 8pm.

The workshop will give participants the opportunity to discover the power of konnakol. Originated in the south of India some 5000 years ago, Konnakol is one of the most effective methods for understanding and mastering rhythm - one of the most important aspects of any musical style. The event is suitable for instrumentalists and vocalists of all styles and levels, the workshop will give participants a glimpse into the world of rhythm.

Asaf will be performing with his trio in the theatre from 8pm showing just why he's earned a reputation as one of the British Jazz scenes most creative drummers. The trio also includes Israeli saxophonist Gilad Atzmon, American guitar maestro Larry Coryell and British pianist Gwilym Simcock. Expect the playing and compositions to reflect Middle Eastern influences as well as the 70s fusion style of John McLaughlin's Mahavishnu Orchestra. The evening will also feature the extraordinary playing of guitarist Tassos Spiliotopoulos and the constantly inventive Yaron Stavi on bass.

Tickets for the workshop cost £5, and for the Asaf Sirkis Trio cost £10 for adults, £9 members, and £7 concessions. Visit www.bridport-arts.com or call 01308 424204 for further details.

Boogie woogie Piano with Julien Phillips

HANG on tight for a fast and furious night of Boogie Woogie piano at Beach & Barnicott. The reputation of Julien Phillips is immense on the Boogie circuit and he has an active solo career and duo act with bass box player Chris Davidson and appears in festival programmes around Europe and the USA.

Julien Phillips started playing the piano at the age of ten and soon after he was playing in front of small gatherings of people from the neighbourhood, arranged by his piano teacher. At fourteen he remembers first hearing a boogie woogie record at a friend's house. Julien began to teach himself this infectious style of piano playing by listening to more records by the originators of boogie woogie such as Pinetop Smith, Jimmy Yancey, Clarence Lofton to name a few. Like so many piano players from the era Julien also began to develop his singing style enabling him to incorporate material from other great blues artists including Big Bill Broonzy, Tampa Red and Louis Jordan.

Julien is gaining a great reputation for his wide and varied repertoire in the boogie woogie and blues genre, playing in a truly authentic way.

Julien has performed alongside many of his contemporaries including Axel Zwingenberger, Jean-Paul Amoureux, Jean-Pierre Bertrand, Martijn Schok, Frank Muschalle and many others and is one of the founder organisers of the UK boogie woogie festival held at Sturminster Newton and Fiddleford in Dorset England.

Julien Phillips plays Boogie Woogie Piano at The Beach & Barnicott, Bridport on Friday, November 30th from 9pm. Admission is free.

New office manager at Beaminster Office

JEREMY Smith is seen being welcomed to Symonds & Sampson by Peter Brook. Jeremy commented "Whilst I have thoroughly enjoyed my previous twenty years with a well established Yeovil estate agent the time is right for me to have a new challenge and I was thrilled to be given the opportunity to manage the Beaminster branch of Symonds & Sampson". I have inherited an excellent team and already we are seeing healthy levels of business which bode well for the new year. Peter added "Symonds & Sampson have been looking for the right person to install as manager in Beaminster and the moment I was aware that Jeremy was interested it was a simple decision for the firm. Jeremy has seamlessly fitted into the Symonds & Sampson way and I am sure he will have a long and successful future with them". Jeremy says "if you are considering selling or are currently on the market without success, why not contact myself or my sales team on 01308 863100 and let us show what Symonds & Sampson can do for you".

Beaminster's Most Experienced Estate Agency Team - Symonds & Sampson

Jeremy Smith – Residential Manager

It is fair to say that Jeremy has estate agency in his blood as his father, Frank Smith, is a founder member of the Dorset estate agency Fortnum Smith and Banwell. Jeremy started his own career in 1987 with Yeovil based estate agents R B Taylor & Sons before moving to Connells in December 1992. He worked his way through to Area Partner level looking after eight branches in Bristol before moving back to Yeovil to take his Connells branch into the top ten in the Connells group in 2006. After 20 years with Connells Jeremy recently decided he required a new adventure and was thrilled to join our team in Beaminster as he has strong connections with the area; his parents have lived in Broadwindsor for thirty years. Outside of selling lots of property Jeremy's main passion is fishing and he has travelled all over the world in pursuit of quarry and his other main interest is Arsenal Football Club where he is a regular at the Emirates. Erica Thorne – Residential Negotiator Erica has always had a keen interest in property and architecture so it was a natural choice to start her career in Estate Agency. She has many years experience working with a local independent agent who then sold out to a corporate company. After a few years off, whilst having her children Erica changed career to accommodate the children and worked for 10 years at a local prep school as a Montessori teacher. She was eager to return to property and joined Symonds and Sampson Beaminster office in October 2011. On a personal note, Erica lives in a village just outside Beaminster with her husband, a Chartered Surveyor, three children and the family dog, a cocker spaniel called Millie.

She loves cooking and baking, music, art, interior design and family walks in the countryside and seaside with Millie.

Jane Crabb - Residential Assistant

Jane has been involved with Symonds & Sampson and indeed the previous estate agent Peter Brook for almost thirty years and has therefore seen many changes in the housing market over the past three decades. Due to the fact she has been in Beaminster for so long she is highly regarded within the community. Jane has been a member of Beaminster Young Farmers' for over thirty years and is currently on the advisory committee and has held such responsible positions as chairperson. Outside of work she lives on the family farm nearby and hobbies include gardening, photography, watching sporting events, listening to music and attending various shows.

Denise Green – Viewing Representative

Denise is our viewing representative and has been involved in estate agency for around six years. Denise is a popular and vital member of our sales team as after all the hard work in us obtaining viewings for your property she will be the individual showing purchasers around your home and generally she will obtain an offer every five viewings which is excellent performance. Denise was born and brought up in Beaminster and knows the area extremely well. Outside of work Denise is a keen member of Casualties Union, Red Cross and has helped raise significant monies for McMillian Cancer support over the years. She lives at home with her family nearby and Denise very much looks forward to selling your property for you.

Avoid seasonal slip ups with Audi winter wheel and tyre packages

AS THE prospect of more potentially perilous winter weather looms, even Audi drivers safeguarded by quattro all-wheel-drive should seriously consider reaping the major benefits offered by the latest Audi approved winter wheels and tyres.

Now available from Audi Centres across the country, the attractive range of 16-inch to 20-inch alloy wheels with even higher anti-corrosion resistance incorporates tyres constructed from a special rubber compound that thrives in temperatures of below +7 degrees centigrade. They bring significant gains in traction and overall control, not only in snow but also in extreme wet conditions at low temperatures, which have to be felt to be believed.

Whereas conventional tyres become stiffer and less flexible at low temperatures, the winter compounds remain softer and more pliable, and consequently better able to maintain grip. They also benefit from a special tread pattern that optimises water displacement, and additional grooves, called sipes, within the tread blocks which interlock with the surface to maximise traction.

The wheel and tyre sets range in price from £799 for the A1 premium compact hatchback to £3,659 for the RS 4 Avant, and are delivered to Audi Centres ready to fit. For tyres only, prices range from £540 to £1,300. In conjunction with the quattro all-wheel-drive system that is available across the vast majority of Audi ranges, they create some of the most steadfastly agile and reassuring models in which to weather our increasingly challenging driving conditions.

Also available are tyre-only options for previous generation Audi models, allowing drivers to keep their current wheel rims. Owners of Audi A3 models built between 1997 and 2003 can purchase four fitted winter tyres for just £325, while a set of four tyres for A4 models built between 2001 and 2007 can be fitted from £540.

For maximum peace-of-mind, Audi models which are outside of their original new car warranty period, and which are newly fitted with a set of Audi winter wheels and tyres, will benefit from one year's complimentary Audi Roadside Assistance cover, offered for a limited period from the point of purchase at an Audi Centre.

To complement the winter tyre programme, Audi Centres can also offer customers a 'tyre hotel' service to store winter or summer tyres when they are not needed. For just £120 including VAT, tyres will be stored for 12 months in Audi branded wheel bags ready to use on request.

Audi drivers seeking enhanced winter protection can find more information by contacting their local Audi Centre or visiting www.audi.co.uk/owners-area/winter-tyres.html

New Ford Fiesta debuts MyKey in Britain; enables parents of young drivers to set top speed and limit audio volume

BRITAIN'S best-selling new Ford Fiesta will be the first car in the UK to feature Ford's MyKey technology, which enables parents to place restrictions on younger drivers to promote safer driving.

Ford-exclusive MyKey enables owners to programme a key – usually for younger drivers – that restricts the top speed of the Fiesta, reduces the maximum volume of the audio system, and even disables the audio system altogether if driver and passengers are not using safety belts. It can also prevent the driver from deactivating safety technologies such as Electronic Stability Control and Active City Stop, which can help mitigate or prevent low-speed collisions.

"All parents know that if teenagers are experts at one thing, it's finding ways of getting into trouble," said Ford's European MyKey system architect, Peter Patzelt. "MyKey allows Fiesta owners to set sensible restrictions for young drivers, and delivers peace-of-mind for parents."

The launch comes as the Government confirms it will take action to improve road safety among young drivers.

European drivers under the age of 25 are up to twice as likely to be involved in a fatal accident*; and a Ford-commissioned survey of the parents of 17- to 20-year-old drivers reveals 46 per cent say their number one concern is that their children are speeding.

The MyKey system forms part of the new Fiesta's safety and driver assistance package that also includes SYNC Emergency Assistance and Ford's Intelligent Protection System with seven airbags.

MyKey was first introduced by Ford in the US, and is now standard on most new North American Ford vehicles. MyKey also now features as standard equipment across much of the new Fiesta range, and Ford ultimately plans to roll-out the technology across its European product line-up by 2015.

MyKey works by recognising different keys for the same car and then adjusting the vehicle settings according to the owner's requirements. It also enables owners to programme chimes to sound at set points between 40-80mph, prevents seatbelt reminders from being disabled and delivers an earlier low-fuel warning.

The survey of more than 6,000 parents of young drivers across Europe found 53 per cent of parents would be more likely to allow a teenage son or daughter to drive their car if it was equipped with MyKey technology.

"Parents love MyKey because it helps them reduce their teenagers' exposure to risk at the wheel," Patzelt said. "Young drivers are not too keen on MyKey until they learn that it often improves the chances their parents will allow them to drive in the first place."

PERRY STREET LEAGUE

WITH HOWARD LARCOMBE

Only three games beat downpour

ONLY three games, all cup-ties, survived the weekend's downpour.

Misterton, despite missing regulars Ian Parker, Johnny Jackson and 14-goal top-scorer Ricky Smith booked their place in the Division One cup final with an impressive 3-1 win over Barrington at Unity Lane.

Barrington scored first through Lee Scriven but Kenny Forbes levelled before the interval with his ninth goal of the season.

Second-half strikes from Dan Peach and Steve Taylor extended Missy's 17-game unbeaten home record and line-up a cup final against either Beaminster Reserves or Netherbury at Crewkerne Town on New Year's day (2pm kick-off).

Hinton's miserable losing run was extended to five games with 35 goals conceded after a 7-0 drubbing by visiting Combe A.

The Saints only led through a Wayne Long cross-shot at half-time. But it was a different story after the restart with the league's top-scorer Warren Gabbidon helping himself to five to take his total to 24. A Kai Logan free-kick rounded-off the scoring.

Combe boss Gary Biss said: "We were poor in the first-half and were guilty of hanging on to the ball too long and were trying to walk the ball into the net."

"But it was much better after the interval when our movement off the ball was much improved. Warren had five but he could have had 35," added Biss who knows a thing or two about finding the net having scored 485 PSDL goals himself!

In the Kenny Hodges cup Ryan Mustchin had an eventful game for Combe B in their 1-0 win over Crewkerne Rangers Reserves at Seavington.

The 17-year-old was in the right place to kick an effort off his own goal line in the first-half and then popped up to score the all-important winner in the 53rd minute.

The victory means the Saints, unbeaten in four, have now won all of their four encounters with the hosts since they were formed last season.

SEASON REVIEW

THE widespread postponements means this is a good week to review the knock-out cup season so far.

Chard Hospital Cup

WINNERS: WINSHAM UNITED RUNNERS-UP CREWKERNE TOWN

WINSHAM United lifted the Chard Hospital cup for the first time in their history when goals from Matt Brown and skipper Darren Spurdle clinched a 2-1 win under the Chard Town floodlights back in August.

Tom Case, now with South Petherton, scored the Tigers' consolation.

County Cups

HOLDERS Millwey Rise hopes of retaining the Devon Intermediate Eastern area trophy are still alive. Rise entertain Devon & Exeter League division five outfit Topsham Town 3rds in a quarter-final tie on Saturday.

Also bidding for a place in the last four are Farway United who head off to D&E division six strugglers Priory.

Lyme Regis Reserves' grip on the Dorset Junior cup ended when they were knocked 3-1 by Bradford Abbas at the Davey Fort.

But the PSDL still has two representatives in Saturday's quarter-final ties. Netherbury travel to Normalair RSL Reserves while Waytown Hounds welcome the Bournemouth University staff side.

Lyme Regis are the only local side left in the Dorset Intermediate cup.

The Seaside's will be looking to go one better than last season when they were beaten in the final 4-2 after extra-time by Milbourne Sports.

Standing in their way are Ferndown Sports in the quarter-final on December 8th.

Down in the Minor cup in-form Drimpton are in with a real chance of becoming the first PSDL team to lift the trophy since the now defunct Halstock defeated Tudor Paving in the final exactly a quarter of a century ago.

The Greens are due to travel to Lower Parkstone on December 8th hunting a place in the semi-finals.

The league is well represented in the Somerset county competitions. In the Junior Cup Shepton Beauchamp, Combe Reserves and Ilminster Town Reserves are all looking forward to last 16 ties on January 12th.

Combe entertain Meadow Rangers while Shepton and Ilminster are both on the road at Bridgwater Sports and Staplegrove respectively.

Combe A are carrying the flag in the Junior cup. The Saints are due to entertain either Staplegrove Reserves or Porlock on January 19th for a place in the last eight.

Coronation Cup

THE 61st Coronation cup final will be contested between Crewkerne Town and Lyme Regis on boxing day at Millwey Rise FC (11am kick-off).

Lyme go into the game looking to lift the trophy for a record-breaking fourth consecutive time.

Crewkerne last won the competition back in 1993-94.

Wlizlo wins inaugural Brian Richards belt

DESPITE the horrendous weather on Saturday evening, boxing fans were not deterred from attending the latest Bridport Amateur Boxing Club tournament held at the Freshwater Holiday Park, and they weren't disappointed writes Stuart Broom.

Almost every one of the 13 bouts were well contested, and although none of the four local boxers managed a victory they all acquitted themselves well.

Guest boxer was Jamie Speight who took time off from training for his title fight this Friday to present the trophies. The current Southern Area Featherweight Champion of Great Britain told the packed audience of around 500 before the event started that it took a lot of courage to stand in the ring and fight, especially those that were having their first contest, and asked for their support.

PhotosIn an emotional speech Bridport's coach Alan Slaney announced that the club had introduced a new award this year following the death of president Brian Richards who died in January.

He recalled that when they formed the club 33 years ago, how the two had made a pact that when one decided to finish, the other would also stand down.

However, Brian had asked Alan in a conversation just before he died that he stayed and kept the club running; and Alan had agreed to his request.

In memory of the co-founder, the committee have introduced a new award, The Brian Richards Memorial Belt, a simulated world title belt, for the best Bridport boxer of the year, which he presented to Polish boxer Wojciech Wlizlo.

This was followed by a ten bell salute or 'final ten count' as it is known.

Thirteen-year-old Lucian Sherwood was the first Bridport boxer to fight in a junior contest against Weymouth's Leon Fowler, who won a unanimous decision after an enthralling fight from two boxers making their debuts.

Bridport's Joe Nowell and Jonathan Fenton-Harvey from Lymington were another pair making their debuts, but once again the home boxer was beaten by a unanimous decision from the judges.

Jack Chatham as usual started in a very energetic manner and was ahead in the first round until a couple of shots rocked him just before the bell. This gave his opponent Gary Robinson encouragement and he finally wore the home boxer down to score a double for the Lymington club.

The last bout of the evening involved two more debutants, Bridport's Sy Storey and Peter Butler from Blandford, and it was the North Dorset boxer that came out on top with a couple of stunning punches that saw the referee stop the fight midway through the first round.

Sturminster Newton's Bella Murphy failed to get revenge on a points defeat by Chloe Le Page of Weymouth two weeks ago, losing a majority decision after an entertaining battle.

There was success however for two of the club's male boxers. Steven Clarke earned a unanimous verdict over Marcus Preddy of Broad Plains, as did Chris Adams over Barnstable's Nico Fadden in two of the best fights of the night.

In an exclusive interview on the night, Jamie Speight told View Sport that he was the fittest he has ever been going into his fight for the vacant Southern Area Super-Bantamweight of Great Britain title at Southampton this Friday against Jose Fernandes.

Speight who has dropped two weight divisions to contest this fight said: "I have been fighting boxers bigger than me; Scott Moises who I beat for the featherweight title is 6'1".

"I was training with Lee Haskins (British and European Bantamweight champion) and he said to me why don't I fight lower?

"I'm probably two inches taller than him but we're pretty much the same build - and he gets down to 8st 3lb for fights, and he convinced me that I was more than capable of going to 8st 10lb and still boxing. This gives me a height advantage at the lower weight, and I'm two inches taller than Fernandes whose 5'5". I've been training hard and really punching well, and the fittest I have ever been, so Fernandes is in for the hardest fight of his life."

Talking about the evening's boxing at Freshwater Speight said: "I've been very impressed. I think Alan has done a great job as its a very well matched show and well contested."

"It's a great turn out by the public and it's been a pleasure to be invited and be part of it. I think Brian (Richards) will be looking down and be very proud."

BRIDPORT SQUASH

Battle of titans too close to call

BRIDPORT 2NDS 16 BRIDPORT 3RDS 11

A LARGE crowd witnessed the clash of the titans with both sides really wanting to get one over each other. Consequently this led to some really enthralling and exciting squash that saw Bridport 2nds take the additional five points for a win by virtue of having won three of the five matches which ended 11 points each writes Roger Lewis.

It is a real credit to Bridport Squash Club that they are able to field teams of such strength and depth, which augurs well for the future.

First on court were the number fives, Gary Prowse (2nds) and Paul Cross (3rds). This was always going to be a topsy-turvy match with both having different styles, but the same determination.

The Match ebbed and flowed throughout with both players taking the initiative, but after a series of long and arduous rallies, it was Prowse who edged home by 9-4, 5-9, 6-9, 9-3, 9-0.

The number four-match was between Steve Brake (2nds) and Tim Parkman (3rds), and it was Parkman that started in a positive manner that prevented Brake settling to play his shots.

Parkman's style means his opponent has to be on the top of his game to compete, and eventually the pressure was just too much and Brake had to concede to hand Parkman a 9-2, 9-1, 9-5 victory.

Undoubtedly the match to watch was between (Dan Wentzel (2nds) and Ed Mamanta (3rds) at three. It became a titanic struggle with Mamanta calling the shots at the start, followed by a sterling fight back by Wentzel.

Both players relied on good length shots with a variation in their play at times, but after some magnificent squash it was Wentzel who inched home 6-9, 7-9, 9-5, 9-5, 9-1.

Steve Hodder playing at two for the 3rds produced his usual good form against 2nds John Mills in a really sporting encounter.

Both players had to change tactics all the time, resulting in some real cat and mouse play all around the court, but eventually it was Hodder's greater determination that gave him a very tight 9-4, 7-9, 2-9, 9-7, 9-4 victory.

With the match tied at 2-2, all was decided on the final encounter between the number one's Oliver Duquemine (2nds) and Neil Mallender (3rds).

Mallender found a resourceful opponent Duquemine who consistently recovered hard drives whilst maintaining a tight regime and dominated by good length shots.

These tactics were just too strong for Mallender who finally had to concede with Duquemine taking the spoils by 2-9, 9-2, 9-5, 9-0.

Moore sets a record

CRAIG Moore became the first driver to successfully defend his title in the ten year history of the Bridge Tyres and Wheels Wiscombe Park Hill Climb Championship.

Having taken the accolade in 2011, the Lyme Regis driver set his target at the beginning of this season to bring the silverware back to the coastal resort, despite the challenge of over 50 drivers from across the southern counties.

At the wheel of his self-prepared Ford Cortina GT, motor technician Moore, secured the series win ahead of Pilbeam MP62 single-seater driver Ed Hollier by the margin of 0.77 of a point.

Having made some set-up changes to the suspension of the Suzuki Hayabusa powered racer in July, the Ottery St Mary driver had a strong second half to the season reducing the points deficit but failing to usurp Moore's advantage.

In securing the premier award Moore received the Bridge Tyres and Wheels Trophy, a replica and a cheque for £300 at an awards presentation evening staged at Wiscombe House where 100 guests celebrated his success.

Horton wins it for parents with late run

THE annual Junior v Parents Open took place recently on the East Pier, West Bay. This popular match is run by West Bay SAC and although originally was a bit of fun for the parents of the juniors to join in, is now open to all friends, family and members of the club.

This year attracted an entry of 32 with some parents fishing for the first time. Conditions were settled and calm with sunny spells but the sea was very coloured. All but three managed to weigh-in and the predominant species on the day was whiting with lots of mainly undersized specimens being weighed in (this is a catch and release match), including wrasse, flounder, bass, rockling, pout, shanny and smelt; a good mixture.

Steve Fowles took an early lead for the seniors with a sizable rockling and whiting but was eventually challenged by Gerry Reed, junior Keiran Ellison and Craig Horton.

Hugh Rathbone made a late challenge with the biggest fish of the day, a 222g rockling, but was not quite enough to catch ex-junior, now senior member, Craig Horton who managed a late run of four sizeable five-bearded rockling to add to his sizeable cork-wing wrasse to clinch first place.

The most fish and overall heaviest bag was by senior member and ex-junior secretary Ian Draper, who caught a total of 20 whiting for a weight of 511g; unfortunately they were all undersized so the legal-sized fish caught by other competitors took precedence. A draw from the three who didn't weigh-in saw Sandra Holt winning the coveted wooden spoon trophy.

Final positions were as follows:
1st: Craig Horton; legal 324g total 478g, 2nd: Keiran Ellison (J); legal 251g

total 346g

3rd: Gerry Reed; legal 234g total 402g, 4th: Hugh Rathbone; legal 222g total 329g

5th: Steve Fowles; legal 195g total 254g, Wooden spoon: Sandra Holt, Best junior: Keiran Ellison (2nd place), First fish: Keiran Ellison, Last fish: Will Halliday, Best lady: Sheila Ford (11th).

So the seniors won yet again, but well done to junior Keiran Ellison for coming a close second. Congratulations to Craig Horton for winning the trophy and also picking up the pool money from senior entrants.

The match sponsors were F and R Daw.

◆ Lastly an apology: Last week's feature on the Junior Trophy Presentation included in the group photo Elliot Joy, but he was not mentioned in the honours list. He won the Thomas Trophy for heaviest garfish (401g).

Bob Buckler racing Cullahill signs off

CULLAHILL put in a good performance in his last race before retirement writes Stuart Bloom.

The 12-year-old signed off with fourth place in the totewinger Handicap Chase over 3m 1f at Folkestone last week following on quickly behind his fourth at Wetherby five days earlier which pocketed his owner Nick Elliott almost £1000 in prize money.

Placed in 20 of his 47 runs with six wins, his best run of form was last year when he was placed in all but three of his 11 races including three wins.

Local trainer Bob Buckler said: "Although he still jumps well he is understandably not as quick as he was. He ran two nice races to finish, but age is catching up and it's time for him to be moving on to other things."

The Henley owner thought that he had a winner in the following race with Sulpis in the Follow totepool On Twitter And Facebook Handicap Chase over 2m 5f.

Having won his maiden victory at the 13th attempt at Fontwell less than two weeks earlier he was backed into 11/4 second favourite. Unfortunately he was troubled by the slippery surface; a horse had slipped over on the straight in the previous race; which unsettled him.

Having lost his place when slipping going into the first fence and again on the bend, he was making ground coming into the straight but at the second last fence he clipped the top of the fence and fell.

"It was unfortunate as he would have won, but Andrew (Glas-sonbury) admitted he took off a fraction too far off the fence and caught the top of it. It was a bit of a crashing fall but he is fine and will probably go again in 2-3 weeks when hopefully the ground has dried out a bit."

Buckler was also pleased with his third runner at the meeting, Dora Canina. The four-year-old filly was running her second race in the 2m 1f bumper, and although she finished down the field Buckler was more than happy with her.

"She's a bit of a madam at home and we were worried whether she would act okay on the course, and have been concentrating on keeping her sweet at home. As a result she was not as fit as she might have been."

"But she ran a great race keeping with the pace early on but just got tired. However she has a nice temperament, is lovely looking and showed she has ability. We can now concentrate on her fitness."

One of the yard's big favourites The Sawyer made his first appearance of the season on Friday in the challenging 3m Mitie Events & Leisure Handicap Chase at Ascot which included some good up and coming horses.

Another 12-year-old, he led the field from the off, but was badly hampered by the loose Brackloom High who fell at the first. This dropped him back in the pack and he finished sixth.

"He's a horse that doesn't come in until January," said Buckler. "I'm delighted with his run. It was great to see him bowling along in the front enjoying life, but in the end he was run out of it by younger, faster horses. But the race brought him on a lot and he may go again before Christmas."

The Happy Warrior had another racetrack experience at Ascot the following day when he ran in the 2m bumper race.

"Unfortunately he's not a speed merchant; he's a big three-mile chaser. He was run in the middle of the pack, running third as they came round the first time."

"I would have preferred him to have stretched them from there, but didn't, and he was beaten for speed. However it was a good education for him and I am certain he will turn out to be a great horse."

BRIDPORT BOWLS

BRIDPORT Ladies (B) team picked up the maximum 8 points away to Moonfleet (C) in the County League, winning 40-31 overall.

Beryl Stork, Mary Marsh, Ann Parkins & Mary Eastman, won 23-15. Gill Hunt, Rosie Wilton, Chris Minas & Janet Tattershall finished with a two count to win 17-16.

While Joan Griffiths, Wilton, Marsh & Janet Bird secured another two points with a 26-24 win against Dolphin (C).

In the Purbeck Trophy League Bridport (A) took six of the eight points against Dorchester (A).

Dave Roberts, Keith Gentry & Brian Rumble lost 15-16 but with Martin Wilton, Bob Taylor & Ivor Parker scoring a one count on the final end to win 16-13, Bridport secured the four extra points for an overall win.

Bridport played host to the Madera Club (Exmouth) with the visitors winning all three rinks and by 63-46 overall.

Gill Hunt, Brian Parker, Clive Baynes & Phil Hedges were 10-7 ahead at the tea interval before finally losing 20-17. Robin Pither, Beryl Stork, John Carter & Max Dare were 11-9 up after 13 ends before 5, 2 count ended their hopes.

Jan Briggs, David Aylott, Therese Castle and Brian Pratt went down 12-21.

Olivia storms to historic hat-trick

OLIVIA Willmore became the first pupil to win the Bridport Primary School Cluster cross-country race three times and in doing so broke the course record.

The weather was perfect for the 12th 'Cluster' schools cross-country races at Symondsburry. The course at Symondsburry was very wet after a lot of rain over night but the sun came out in the morning for the start of the races, to give ideal conditions for the 12th running of this annual event.

Teams from Burton Bradstock, Loders, Pow-erstock, Symondsburry, St Catherines, St Marys and Thorners competed over the one mile course which took the runners around the base of Colmers Hill, and included a couple of steady climbs and a muddy section.

A large field of 40 girls included Loders, the defending champions, who once again had a very strong team including Willmore.

She had won the race as a year four and year

five pupil and was attempting to be the first athlete to be the individual winner three times; only two other athletes beside Willmore had won it twice before.

She didn't disappoint, attacking from the start and ran away from the rest of the field to finish in a time of 7min 4secs, knocking six seconds off the course record which had stood since 2005 set in very dry conditions, showing how strong a runner she is. Second was Anna Cleden from Powerstock, with Maddy Herbert from Loders third.

Loders won the team event, with St. Catherines second and Symondsburry third.

Forty-five runners competed the boy's race in which Loders were also the defending champions.

They looked strong once again with Marcus Burt, taking an early lead, but he was caught by Frankie Chant also from Loders, who went on to win in a time of 6 min 44 secs, six seconds outside the course record.

Burt was second with Sam Matterface from Symondsburry third.

■ TRIPLE CHAMPION: Olivia Willmore who became the first runner to win the race three times.

Symondsburry pipped defending champions Loders to win the team event, with only two points separating them, with Thorners and St Catherines equal third.

League gala victory

A squad of 32 swimmers represented Chard Swimming Club in a successful Round 2 of the Western Division Arena Swimming League held at Millfield recently (writes Hannah Pullinger).

well ahead

The Chard team, containing many locally-based swimmers, again pulled ahead on points from the start, gaining an outstanding 46 top three positions in the 50 events, with first positions in no less than 28 events, which enabled them to finish well ahead of the opposition in first place in the Gala overall.

Individual first places went to Luke van den Barselaar, Hannah Pullinger, Tessa Down (2), Abi Dare, Joe Spurway, Melissa Hanson, Oliver Billie, Jamie Lillington, Hope Horsfield, Iain Ross (2), Henry Taswell (2) and Jess Patch.

The Relay Teams also showed some determined swimming, with nine first places; five to the girls and four to the boys.

Congratulations to all the swimmers for another great performance.

And a big thank you to all the Club coaches, officials, team managers, and time-keepers and who all helped to make the event a success.

Chard now look forward to another strong performance in the final round in December.

SCRUM DOWN: RUGBY ROUND-UP

Win double on the cards for Bridport?

I WOULD of course, have liked my final rugby column to have gone with a bang, but the weather thought otherwise, and I sat by my computer on Saturday morning watching it diminish by the minute as the postponements were advised to the RFU results service.

Predictably both BRIDPORT'S home fixtures, against SALISBURY 2nd and Lytchett Minster seconds fell early victims.

These postponements were soon followed by the WIMBORNE v WEYMOUTH game, Weymouth seconds trip to Ellingham & Ringwood, and the Dorchester seconds home fixture against North Dorset thirds.

They are hardy souls at PUDDLETOWN however, and the club's important league and cup encounter with POOLE went ahead in conditions that aptly matched the names of the protagonists.

DORCHESTER'S main pitch was deemed playable too, and the Southern Counties encounter against SUPERMARINE took place.

PUDDLETOWN 3 POOLE 0

THERE are some hardy souls out Puddletown way, and they are also fortunate that their ground copes with excessive amounts of water much better than most.

In any event, although underfoot conditions virtually precluded the playing of too much open rugby, this game that, apart from being a league fixture, was also the semi final of the Dorset & Wilts Junior Vase Competition was able to go ahead.

In fact what took place was a closely fought contest, the outcome of which was in doubt until the whistle for no side sounded.

Puddletown certainly started the stronger, applying periods of pressure throughout the first half, and they could well have scored on several occasions.

Poole were nothing if not stubborn in defence however, and all the home side had to show for their labours at the half way stage was a three point lead.

This sole success came via the boot of skipper Tom Yeatman who landed a penalty goal just before the break.

Poole had shown enough in the first period to indicate that they were far from done however, and Puddletown would have known that matters were certainly not settled at the change round. This was indeed the case, and the visitors most certainly had their moments in attack throughout the second half.

Conditions were deteriorating however. It was definitely not a day for place kickers and, with ten man rugby being the order of the day, the mudlarks on both sides were enjoying themselves.

Both sides came close to scoring during the half, but neither could manage it and, although it was Poole who finished the stronger, the Puddletown defence coped with a tense final few minutes.

The final whistle sounded eventually, with Puddletown emerging with a place in the final against Lytchett Minster at Swanage & Wareham's ground on Saturday next, after a game that was, for the most part, too close for comfort.

DORCHESTER 53 SUPERMARINE 15
UNDERFOOT conditions were surprisingly good for this Southern Counties (South) League fixture, although the rain that poured throughout together with the gusting strong wind brought real problems for the participants.

The visitors had the wind at their backs initially, and used it at every opportunity.

Home full-back, Read, ran one such kick back at them to very good effect however, breaking through their defence and running to the posts, for Baker to convert.

Another home try came before the break when Shane Costigan put Bament into the gap and he touched down.

Baker added the extras to this one also and Dorchester lead by 14-0 at the half way stage.

The third quarter proved to be the pivotal period. During it, Dorchester crossed the visitors' line on four occasions, wrapping up the four-try bonus point, and putting the issue beyond doubt.

James Baker scored a couple with James Newsam and Bamlet getting the others. Baker converted two of them and Dorchester led 38-0.

To say that the home side were guilty of taking their foot off the accelerator pedal would be an injustice and an overstatement.

They did however, with the game well won, tend to relax. Supermarine came into the game and had a modicum of success, scoring three unconverted tries to give the scoreline respectability.

These had no bearing on the final result however; the more especially as the home side responded with three touchdowns of their own, through Read, Bament and Newsam as the game broke up during the final few minutes, thus giving their side a very decisive win indeed.

PREVIEW

IT is Cup Final day for two of the local sides on Saturday next. WEYMOUTH meet WIMBORNE for the Dorset & Wilts Intermediate Cup Final, with the game taking place at SWANAGE & WAREHAM and a 2.15pm kick-off.

It may be that the game will also count as a league fixture, although Wimbome will have to sacrifice home advantage for this to happen.

It may well be that they will do so to avoid the possibility of a fixture log-jam in the new year. The matter is for them to decide. Whatever is decided, this will be a difficult game for Weymouth to win.

They have exceeded expectations as regards life in the Southern Counties division thus far this season, and sit in the division's mid-table, with a game in hand over their nearest rivals.

Wimbome are in the top flight however as the campaign nears the halfway stage, and certainly will have a promotion place in their sights. I cannot see Weymouth returning with the silverware on Saturday evening.

PUDDLETOWN too have a Cup Final in prospect. In fact they meet LYTCHETT MINSTER in the final of the Dorset & Wilts Junior Plate, also at Swanage & Wareham, on Saturday next, kick off 1-45pm.

I think that this will be a close encounter for, although their opponents play in the Dorset & Wilts League Division three, a level below Puddletown, they are carrying all before them in that division at the

May magic bags a point

Yeovil & Sherborne 2nd 3 Beaminster 3

BEAMINSTER became the first team the season to take a point off Yeovil & Sherborne 2nds in the West Clubs Womens Hockey League Channel Division 1.

The league leaders went into the game with a 100 per cent after the first round of fixtures (the club's play each other three times in a season) with six straight wins including a 4-0 victory at The Sir John Colfox School, on the first day of the season.

There is no doubting they are the best side in the league and on chances created should have won this match but for some fine saves from Phoebe Stewart, but their physical style and arrogance dismayed the visitors.

It was fortunate that Beaminster were able to call on some of their more experienced players for this game. Striker Izzy Davies travelled back from London, whilst Danni Donovan returned after several weeks out with a shoulder injury. With Jenny Clarke and Taryn Critchard also available it allowed Stewart to resume between the posts.

This gave the West Dorset side a much better balance than in the past few weeks where a number of young players have stood in admirably.

However they are physically inadequate and without the nous to compete against sides such as Yeovil & Sherborne.

Despite the host's stature, Beaminster attacked from the start and were rewarded after five minutes when they took the lead through Izzy Davies. Her sizzling shot from an acute angle beat keeper Di Darch at her near post.

Buoyed by their start, Beaminster continued to press and increased their lead when Clarke fired through a ruck of players.

Stung by this the hosts reduced the deficit through Alice Davies before the break and Natalie Beauford equalised early in the second-half.

Not downhearted, Beaminster kept their shape with the wingers stretching the home defence by staying wide allowing space down the middle for Izzy Davies. However, recognising her as the main goal scoring threat, the opposition they had as many as three defenders stopping her.

Y & S thought they had managed to continue their winning run when Tracey White put them ahead with eight minutes remaining, but Beaminster had other.

With less than two minutes left Julia May made a determined run into the D, resulting in a short corner. Her first injection was called back because the home defence had broken too quickly, but from her second input, Izzy Davies returned the ball to her, and May blasted a scorching shot beyond Darch for a superb equaliser.

The result shows that, with a full complement, Beaminster are as good as anyone in the league.

This Saturday they host bottom side Salisbury 4ths.

BY KEITH JENKIN

moment, and will therefore be a very real force.

BRIDPORT for their part, will make another attempt to play Swanage & Wareham 2nds in a league catch-up fixture and, if they mind their trade, really should win this one.

DORCHESTER however, being up to date with league commitments, are without a fixture at first team level.

As to the second sides, Bridport 2nds should really have too much for their Lytchett Minster counter parts, while Dorchester 2nds face a tougher ask with the visit of North Dorset thirds.

Weymouth 2nds make the long journey to Ellingham & Ringwood and will be lucky to return from there with anything, while Weymouth thirds have a blank date.

◆ This will be my final rugby column. Of course, I shall certainly miss wandering around the clubs and touchlines on a Saturday afternoon, and I will now have to find something else to do with my weekends.

I have enjoyed the last 16 years and have made some good chums along the way. I have had a lot of fun writing this column. I hope you have enjoyed reading it!

God Bless, Keith J.

HEAVY rain that started in the early part of the week caused the postponement of all our local senior sides games at the weekend including Dorchester Town's FA Trophy clash with Luton Town.

Devon referee Brett Huxtable arrived early at The Avenue Stadium to make a pitch inspection, and having given the go ahead twice, he finally had to call it a day just after midday following a prolonged heavy downpour.

Luton, who travelled down the day before and stayed in Yeovil overnight, returned to Dorset again on Tuesday for the rearranged fixture.

The eventual winner of the tie will face either Mansfield Town or Matlock in the second round on December 15th.

Bridport had a double disappointment having two home games in four days called off.

The Bees were looking to get back to Tolstation Western League Premier Division action with the visit of Bishop Sutton on Tuesday having only played five of their 15 games to date at St Mary's Field. However, a 3pm pitch inspection on the day put paid to their plans.

The club also received news the same day that their visitors on Saturday had been changed; Larkhall's FA Trophy fixture taking preference.

However, their replacement's Melksham Town never got on the bus as the game was postponed on Friday morning following gales and rain on Thursday evening.

Weymouth's Evo-Stik South Premier game against second placed Leamington was called off on Saturday morning because of a waterlogged pitch.
